

Rule 588. Fines, Penalties, and Costs on Written Consents to Judgments in Civil Law Violations

(a) All civil law violations may be satisfied without a court appearance by admitting to the violation, with the exception of electronic admissions unless authorized by the Supreme Court, and payment of $120, inclusive of all penalties, fees, and costs.

(b) No other fines, fees, penalties, or costs shall be assessed in any case that is disposed of on an admission to the violation without a court appearance. The fine shall be disbursed by the clerk pursuant to statute.

Adopted Sept. 1, 2016, eff. immediately.