In the exercise of this Court's supervisory authority, the Appellate Court, Second District, is directed to vacate its judgment in People v. LaPointe, case No. 2-08-0236 (10/22/10), affirming an order denying defendant's third application for leave to file a second petition for post-conviction relief. The appellate court is directed to remand to the circuit court to allow defendant the opportunity to file a successive post-conviction petition limited only to the issue of whether trial counsel was ineffective in failing to file a motion to withdraw defendant's guilty plea on the grounds stated in defendant's alleged September 23, 1978 letter to counsel. (See slip op. at 2-3). If defendant so chooses to file a successive petition for post-conviction relief, as limited, the circuit court will then consider that successive petition pursuant to 725 ILCS 5/122-2.1, 122-4 to 122-6. This order does not express any opinion on the merits of defendant's contentions or his entitlement to any form of relief. If defendant chooses not to file a successive post-conviction petition, as limited, within 60 days, the circuit court shall so notify the appellate court, which may then reinstate its judgment.
