

5.08

Corporate Responsibility--Authorized Acts

A corporation is legally responsible for conduct which is authorized, requested, commanded, or performed by the board of directors or by a high managerial agent who is acting within the scope of his employment on behalf of the corporation.

Committee Note

720 ILCS 5/5-4(a)(2) (West, 1999) (formerly Ill.Rev.Stat. ch. 38, §5-4(a)(2) (1991)).

Give Instruction 5.10, defining the term “high managerial agent.”