Issues In Indecent Solicitation Of A Child

To sustain the charge of indecent solicitation of a child, the State must prove the following propositions:

First Proposition: That the defendant [(solicited a child under the age of 13 years to do any act) (solicited a person to arrange an act with a child under the age of 13 years)] which if done would be [(aggravated criminal sexual assault) (predatory criminal sexual assault of a child) (criminal sexual assault) (aggravated criminal sexual abuse) (criminal sexual abuse)]; and

Second Proposition: That the defendant was then 17 years of age or older.

If you find from your consideration of all the evidence that each of these propositions has been proved beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty.

If you find from your consideration of all the evidence that any one of these propositions has not been proved beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty.
