Petition for leave to appeal denied.

In the exercise of this Court's supervisory authority, the Appellate Court, Third District, is directed to vacate its judgment in People v. Guy, case No. 3-05-0564 (08/23/07). The appellate court is directed to determine whether defendant's pro se "Motion to Preserve Issues for Appeal" was timely. If the motion was timely, the appellate court is directed to remand the cause to the circuit court for an examination of defendant's claims of ineffective assistance of counsel set forth in the motion, pursuant to People v. Moore, 207 Ill. 2d 68 (2003).

No. 105317 - People State of Illinois, petitioner, v. Scott English, respondent. Leave to appeal, Appellate Court, Third District. (3-05-0688)

In the exercise of this Court's supervisory authority, the Appellate Court, Third District, is directed to vacate its judgment in People v. English, case No. 3-05-0688 (06/29/07). It appears that the appellate court applied a de novo standard of review, otherwise generally applicable to a review of a dismissal of a post-conviction petition. The appellate court is directed to specifically consider whether this is the appropriate standard of review applicable to the circuit court's order of September 26, 2005, denying defendant's motion to reinstate and amend his initial post-conviction petition, or whether an abuse of discretion standard is warranted, especially in light of the appellate court's reliance on 725 ILCS 5/122-5 which specifically grants discretion to the circuit court.
